

Hong Kong office

O&M HSE Manager

responsibility

Reporting to Operation Manager with below responsibilities:

- Assist the Operation manager in HSE aspects;
- In compliance with regulations on Health & Safety, reviews the missions in the job scope. Accordingly defines and deploys HSE policies and procedures, manages change and checks the execution of defined policies and procedures, so as to reduce risks from our facilities and minimizes their impact on our employees, visitors and subcontractors during our operations;
- Drafts all HSE guidelines and manuals and ensure all related HSE guidelines are implemented by departments;
- Analyzes hazards and develops ergonomic risk assessments;
- Conducts regular site inspection, ensures proper use of PPE and the execution of HS procedures;
- Responsible for the compliance of Company's environmental policies.

requirement

- Degree in Engineering or equivalent from an accredited College or University with major coursework in Industrial Hygiene, Safety, Physical Sciences or a field related to the work;
- Possesses or obtains prior to completing probation, a certification as an Occupational Safety Officer from an approved program or professional association;
- Leadership, Animation and Communication skills, Spirit of Synthesis and Anticipation, Rigor, Commitment, Autonomy;
- Good knowledge and rich experience in health & safety management on the field in both construction phase and operation;
- Good knowledge of risks in wastewater treatment, and of Quality Management System;
- Trained and experienced in fire prevention, first aid and emergency drills.

contact

Interested party may send us your resume to hrd.wo@suez.com .